COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS AND MATERIALS USE AGREEMENT

Warning concerning copyright restrictions: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs making photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of the conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction will not be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. The written permission of any copyright owners, and/or any other rights holders, may be required for distribution, reproduction, or other use of protected items that extends beyond fair use or other statutory exemptions. Responsibility for making an independent legal assessment and securing any necessary permissions ultimately rests with the requestor.

Materials Use Agreement: Permission is granted for one-time use only. If this material is published or displayed in any form and/or format including electronically, the Library requests credit be given to The Seattle Public Library in the credit line. This statement should read:

*Courtesy of The Seattle Public Library
[citation or identifier number]*

If the material is used in any publication, broadcast, or online display, the Library needs either a copy of the item or notification of the publication and distribution of the image(s). The Library requests a copy of any published use of the material.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I have read the information above and agree to abide by the terms stated.
